

GLASGOW SKI CLUB

SEPTEMBER 2015

A very warm welcome to another ski season with the Glasgow Ski Club. We trust you had a great summer (well, as good as it could be given the weather over the 'summer'). It appears that there are a great many more patches of snow still on the mountains than previous years. No surprise there then!. Last year was a very good year for snow in Scotland, let us hope for an even better repeat.

Latest news from some of the Scottish ski centres -

Glencoe -

A new Poma tow is/has been installed from near the Plateau cafe to a bit below the Spring run. As seen below

And a map of (roughly) where it is. Well done to Glencoe. Even more infrastructure developments next year!

Scottish Skiing -

As in previous years, we will be organising day trips to Glencoe. This will usually be on a Sunday. As the snow arrives, please check our website as the ski days will be advertised 2 weeks before the day trip to the resort.

SnowFactor -

The club will be continuing our season long practice skiing nights at the indoor 'snowdome'. The evenings regularly start with a meal in China Buffet King at 7.00pm until (about) 8.30pm. We ski from 9.00pm - 10.00pm and usually finish the evening off with apres ski drink in the bar. It would be great to get as many members along as possible to make these successful evenings - even if you only come for the skiing! Make sure YOU don't miss out on this great offer from the Club.
